Peter Billiau is the new Chief Operations Officer – NRB Infrastructure

Peter Billiau joins the company's Executive Committee as Chief Operations Officer – Infrastructure. His experience and expertise in the world of IT are valuable assets to best support NRB's growth.

For more than ten years, Peter Billiau has been developing the IT strategy of many large companies, including Dexia, EDF Luminus, and Yara International, as CIO. His skills in the field of innovation and digital transformation, as well as his people-focused management have enabled him to meet great success throughout his career.

Peter Billiau is excited to begin his journey as Chief Operations Officer – Infrastructure at NRB: "I'm particularly happy to join NRB, a prestigious name in the ICT world in Belgium. All these years as a CIO have allowed me to build a great experience that I like to share with my teams. I'm looking forward to meeting all of my new colleagues to take on the many exciting challenges that await us."

This appointment is part of the company's ongoing search for excellence, as confirmed by Laurence Mathieu, Chief Executive Officer of NRB. "Peter is recognised for his leadership, change management and strategic partnership skills. Together, we will continue to develop our infrastructure and industrialise our processes to serve our customers better."
